1. Purpose and Scope

1.1 Purpose

Clients trust Mehfil-e-Zan with their time, money, celebrations and personal information. This SOP explains how we treat them honestly and respectfully at every step: first contact, onboarding, understanding needs, quoting, delivering, handling complaints and saying goodbye. It protects clients and also protects the business and its staff.

Members and pass holders	Day Pass, Mehfil Pass and Work & Sip customers	Sales Executive, Supervisor

- Prices are in Pakistani rupees (PKR) and follow the official price list approved by the CEO.
- Clients are contacted through the business WhatsApp number, official email, Instagram and Facebook messages and the phone. Staff do not use personal numbers.

Role	Responsibilities under this SOP
Owner and CEO	Approve this SOP, prices and terms. Decide on serious complaints, refunds above limits, bans, conflict-of-interest cases involving managers, and public statements.
HR / Sales / Marketing Manager	Owns this SOP. Handles organisation clients, reviews proposals, handles Level 3 complaints, trains staff and reports satisfaction results.
Sales Executive	Main contact for leads, memberships and private bookings. Runs needs assessments, prepares quotations and follows the schedule in Section 9.
Marketing Executive	Replies to enquiries on social media, keeps service descriptions honest, collects feedback and handles review replies.
Supervisor	Handles guest and client complaints on shift (Level 2). Makes sure service matches what was promised.
Operations Officer	Checks that rooms, staff, menu and equipment can deliver each booking and workshop. Reports delivery problems early.
Finance Director	Checks prices and non-standard quotations, handles payments and refunds, and keeps payment records.
IT Manager	Controls CRM access, protects client data and handles data requests and breaches technically.
Security & Safety Manager	Handles clients who threaten or harass staff or guests, and client safety incidents.
Documentation & Compliance Coordinator	Keeps the Complaint Register, Conflict-of-Interest Register, minutes and forms. Checks compliance each quarter.
All employees	Be honest, protect client information, keep professional boundaries, record promises and pass on complaints.

3. Ethical Principles

Principle	What it means in practice
Honesty	We say only what is true about prices, services, timelines and results. We admit mistakes quickly.
Respect and dignity	Every client is treated kindly, with no discrimination by language, class, background, religion, appearance, age or marital status.
Safety and privacy	Our women-only space is private and safe. Client information and photos are protected.
Fairness	The same price list and rules apply to everyone. No hidden charges, no unfair pressure.
Clarity	We explain things in simple Urdu or English and confirm important points in writing.
Accountability	We keep our promises and record them. When we cannot, we say so early and offer a fair solution.

4. First Contact

4.1 How to respond

- Reply to new enquiries within 1 hour in opening hours. Messages received after 10:00 PM are answered by 11:00 AM the next day (MEZ-PLN-002).
- Greet warmly, introduce yourself by name and thank the person for contacting Mehfil-e-Zan. Use Urdu or English according to the client's choice.
- Answer the question asked. Give the real price, hours and address. Do not exaggerate or make claims that are not true.
- Explain the women-only policy and the child rule politely in the first reply when it matters, for example for a private booking.
- Ask only for details you need, such as name, number, date and purpose. Say why you need them.
- Log every enquiry in the CRM the same day, with the source and the next follow-up date.

4.2 If we cannot help

Say so honestly. Suggest an alternative date, another service or another provider when possible. A truthful "no" builds more trust than a "yes" we cannot deliver.

4.3 First-contact script

"Assalam-o-Alaikum, thank you for contacting Mehfil-e-Zan. This is (name). I would be happy to help you with (topic). May I ask a few quick questions so I can give you the right details?"

2. Confirm details	Check name, phone, email, date, number of guests, special needs and dietary needs.	Sales Executive

- Members: give a welcome message the same day, a check-in call after 7 days and a feedback request after 30 days. Explain exactly what the pass includes, such as the discount on the menu or the free workshop.
- Organisation clients: use a short written agreement signed by an authorised person and approved by the CEO.
- Private events with male service providers (caterers, technicians): tell the client in advance and follow the Service Entrance rules in MEZ-SOP-002.

- Listen first. Ask open questions: What is the occasion? Who is coming? What would make it a success? What is your budget? What worries you?
- Check what we can truly deliver: dates, seating (maximum 40), kitchen capacity, staff, and the client's privacy needs.
- Record the answers in the Client Needs Assessment Form (Annex A) and in the CRM.
- Do not oversell. Recommend the option that fits the need and budget, even if it is cheaper.
- Do not give medical, legal, religious or financial advice. For allergies, say clearly what the kitchen can and cannot guarantee.
- Send a short written summary of the needs within 24 hours and ask the client to confirm or correct it.

Payment terms	30% advance to confirm the date (assumed). Balance due on the day or as agreed in writing.
Cancellation and refunds	Assumed rule: full refund if cancelled 7 or more days before, 50% refund 3 to 6 days before, no refund within 72 hours.
Timeline	Date and time. Deadlines for guest numbers, menu choices and final payment.

Approval line	Name of the person who prepared it and who approved it.

7.2 Rules

- Send a quotation within 24 hours of the needs assessment. Use the standard template (Annex B).
- Use only prices from the official list. Any discount or special price must be approved before it is promised: Manager up to the approved list limit, CEO above it. Finance Director checks all non-standard quotations.
- Do not compare falsely with other cafes or make claims you cannot prove.
- Changes after acceptance are written down and re-confirmed by the client. A new version number is given.
- The booking is confirmed only after the client accepts in writing (email or WhatsApp) and the advance is received. Send a confirmation message with all details.

- Maximum of 3 follow-ups on one offer, unless the client asks for more. Do not pressure, guilt or message repeatedly.
- If a client says no or asks to stop, record it, thank her and stop the same day.

10. Client Meeting Minutes

- Take minutes at every planning meeting with an organisation client or private event client, whether in person, online or by phone (Annex C).
- Minutes show date, attendees, decisions, price or scope changes, actions with owners and deadlines, and open questions.
- Send the minutes within 24 hours. Ask the client to confirm or correct within 2 working days. If she does not reply, send one reminder, and then treat them as accepted.
- Record promises and changes in the Decision and Commitment Log (MEZ-SOP-007, Annex C of that SOP).

- Keep minutes in the client record for 3 years (assumed). Do not record calls or meetings without telling the client first.

11. Honesty in Pricing, Services, Timelines and Commitments

11.1 Rules

- Pricing: show the full price. Say what is included and what costs extra. Do not use fake discounts, fake "last chance" offers or confusing fine print.
- Service descriptions: describe the menu, space, workshops and facilities as they really are. Photos must show the real place. Do not promise a guest list, a chef, an instructor or equipment that is not confirmed.
- Timelines: give realistic dates. Add time for problems. Tell the client early about any delay, as soon as it is known and no later than 24 hours before, with the new date and what we will do to fix it.
- Commitments: promise only what you can deliver and what is within your authority (MEZ-SOP-007, Section 14.3). Confirm promises in writing and record them.
- Results and reviews: do not guarantee outcomes such as income from a freelancing workshop. Do not write or buy fake reviews. Sample testimonials in marketing are marked as samples.

11.2 Truth check before sending

Before you send a price, offer or promise, ask: Is it true? Is it complete? Can we deliver it? Is it approved? Would I be comfortable if the client read our internal notes?

11.3 Examples of what not to do

Do not	Do instead
Say "fully booked" to avoid a difficult request	Say what is available and offer another date
Add service charges after the booking	State all charges in the quotation
Promise "Rs. 20,000 in a month" from a workshop	Describe what participants will learn
Hide a delay and hope the client does not notice	Tell her early and offer a fix
Offer a discount to win a booking without approval	Get approval, or offer only listed options

12. Client Confidentiality and Privacy

12.1 What we protect

Names, phone numbers, addresses, email, children's details, event details, dietary and health information, payment records, photos, messages, CCTV footage, and the fact that someone is a client.

12.2 Rules

- Collect only the information we need and tell the client why we need it.
- Use client information only for the purpose it was given. Marketing messages and photos need separate consent. A client can withdraw consent at any time.
- Store records in the CRM or approved folders with access control (MEZ-POL-001). Do not keep client data on personal phones or share it in chat groups.

- Do not tell one client about another client, her booking or her payments. Do not discuss clients in guest areas or on social media.
- Do not store card numbers or full CNIC copies unless the law requires it. Payment records are kept by the Finance Director.
- Share data with a caterer, decorator or other provider only when needed for the booking and with the client's knowledge.
- Children's names and photos are never published without a parent's written consent.

12.3 Client requests and breaches

- A client may ask what we hold about her, ask for corrections, or ask us to delete her data. The IT Manager and Documentation & Compliance Coordinator reply within 7 working days (assumed), unless the law requires us to keep certain records.
- Client records are kept as stated in the Master Document Register. Leads who never became clients are deleted after 24 months.
- If client data is leaked or sent to the wrong person, report it the same day to the IT Manager and the HR / Sales / Marketing Manager. The CEO decides how and when to inform affected clients, without delay.

13. Professional Boundaries

- Be warm and caring, but keep the relationship professional. Use business channels, not personal accounts or numbers.
- Do not accept or give gifts worth more than Rs. 2,000 (assumed). Record any gift above Rs. 500 with the Supervisor. Never accept money, loans or favours that could affect a decision.
- Do not run private business with a client, or sell her your own products or services, during work time.
- Do not share your own or a colleague's personal details. Do not ask clients about private matters that are not needed for the service.
- Do not give advice on health, law, religion or money. Offer to help find a qualified person.
- Never be alone with a child who is not yours, and never take a child out of sight of the parent (MEZ-SOP-002).
- Be kind and extra careful with clients who seem distressed or unsafe. Stay calm, offer privacy, and tell the Supervisor. Call 15 or 1122 if there is danger.
- Do not favour one client over another because of friendship, family ties or personal benefit.
- Staff do not follow, add or message clients on personal social media for personal reasons. Staff who already know a client personally tell the Supervisor.

14. Conflict-of-Interest Disclosure

14.1 What it is

A conflict of interest exists when a personal interest, family tie, side job or money gain could affect, or seem to affect, how a person treats a client, vendor or partner.

14.2 Examples

- A staff member's relative supplies cakes, décor or transport for an event.
- A staff member runs her own baking or craft class and also sells it to Mehfil clients, or takes a commission from a vendor.
- A staff member is hired privately by a client, or is paid by a competitor.
- A manager approves a discount or contract for a friend or family member.
- An instructor is also a client of the same event and decides prices or reviews.

14.3 Procedure

Step	Action	Time
Disclose	Tell the HR / Sales / Marketing Manager in writing, using the Disclosure Form (Annex G). Managers disclose to the CEO, and the CEO to the Owner.	Within 2 working days of knowing
Pause	Do not take part in the decision, price or contract until it is reviewed.	Immediately
Decide	The reviewer decides: no action, the person steps aside, the work goes to someone else, extra checks are added, or the arrangement ends.	Within 5 working days
Record	The Documentation & Compliance Coordinator records it in the Conflict-of-Interest Register.	Same day
Inform	When it affects a client, the client is told honestly, without revealing private details.	Before the work continues

Every employee gives a conflict-of-interest declaration at joining and once a year. Late or hidden conflicts lead to disciplinary action under MEZ-SOP-001. Disclosing a conflict in good faith is never held against anyone.

15. Complaint Handling and Escalation

15.1 Principles

A complaint is a chance to fix a problem and keep a client. Welcome it, listen without arguing, and take it seriously. Nobody is punished for raising a complaint in good faith.

15.2 Steps

Step	Action	Time
Receive	Listen. Say sorry for the experience. Write down the facts. Do not argue or blame others.	On the spot
Record	Enter it in the Complaint Register using the Complaint Form (Annex D): date, client, issue, severity, who is handling it.	Same shift
Acknowledge	Tell the client the complaint is received and who will handle it.	Within 4 hours
Investigate	Check facts, records, CCTV if appropriate (MEZ-SOP-002) and speak to staff involved.	Within 2 working days
Respond	Give an honest explanation and a fair solution: apology, redo, replacement, credit or refund.	Within 3 working days
Close	Confirm the client is satisfied. Record the outcome and the lesson learnt.	Within 5 working days

15.3 Escalation levels

Level	Handled by	Authority
1	Staff member who receives it	Apologise, replace an item, fix the issue on the spot
2	Supervisor	Complimentary items or refund up to Rs. 1,500 per client (MEZ-SOP-007)
3	HR / Sales / Marketing Manager (with Finance Director for money)	Bigger refunds or credits, event service failures, repeated problems
4	CEO (Owner if the CEO is involved)	Final decision, serious or legal matters, bans, public statements

- Escalate straight to Level 3 or 4 for safety incidents, harassment, discrimination, privacy breaches, threats of legal action or media attention. Follow MEZ-SOP-002 and MEZ-SOP-007 as well.
- If the client is still unhappy after Level 3, she may ask for a CEO review. The CEO replies in writing within 7 working days.
- Online complaints and reviews: reply politely and briefly, invite the person to talk privately, and never argue in public (MEZ-SOP-007, Section 9.4).
- The HR / Sales / Marketing Manager reviews all complaints each month for patterns and agrees corrective actions with the owners.

16. Feedback Collection and Satisfaction Tracking

16.1 How feedback is collected

- A short feedback card or QR code at the host desk for cafe guests.
- A message within 24 hours after a workshop, booking or visit, using the Client Feedback Form (Annex E).
- A 30-day check-in for new members and an exit question for those who leave (Section 17).
- Keep it short: 3 to 5 questions, with space for comments. Ask permission before using any comment publicly.

16.2 Rules

- Collect feedback fairly. Do not pick only happy clients or coach clients to give high scores.
- Contact clients who give a score of 3 or below within 3 working days to understand and fix the issue.
- Share results with the team every month. Thank the team for good scores and learn from low ones.

Note: Targets are goals for planning. Real results are reported honestly, and no figure is shared in marketing unless it is real.

17. Client Offboarding

17.1 When it applies

When a membership ends or is cancelled, a booking or project is complete, a client chooses to leave, or Mehfil-e-Zan decides to end the relationship.

17.2 Steps

- Only the CEO decides to end a relationship or ban a client, after a documented review of the facts (MEZ-SOP-002).
- Tell the client respectfully, in writing, with the reason in simple words and any refund due. Do not shame her in public or online.
- Refund unused prepaid amounts unless the terms clearly say otherwise.
