Student project note: This document is a student project deliverable. Response times, approval limits, committee members and retention periods are business assumptions. Laws on workplace harassment, employment, data protection and online conduct must be checked for Pakistan and Sindh, and reviewed by a qualified adviser, before a real business adopts this SOP.

1. Purpose and Scope

1.1 Purpose

Mehfil-e-Zan is built on trust. How we speak and write to each other, to our guests and to partners is part of that trust. This SOP sets the standards for professional, kind and honest communication. It covers how to write emails, answer calls, run meetings and use messaging apps, how fast to reply, how to protect private information, how to deal with disagreements, and how to record decisions and promises.

1.2 Scope

It applies to every form of work communication: face to face, phone, email, WhatsApp and other messaging groups, video calls, social media, printed notices and documents. It applies on and off the premises, and on personal devices when they are used for work.

1.3 Business assumptions

- Mehfil-e-Zan is a women-only cafe and community space in Gulshan-e-Iqbal, Karachi. It opens daily from 10:00 AM to 10:00 PM. Staff shifts are 9:00 AM to 5:30 PM and 2:30 PM to 11:00 PM (MEZ-SOP-001).
- Staff communicate in English and Urdu. Guests may use either language.
- The business has an official email domain, a business WhatsApp number and an Instagram and Facebook page. WhatsApp groups are used for shifts and teams.
- The business is launching and building its documents and brand portfolio at the same time. Communication standards therefore also cover official documents and brand materials (Section 9).

Role	Responsibilities under this SOP
Owner and CEO	Approve this SOP. Lead by example. Act as Competent Authority for harassment matters. Decide on serious breaches and approve any statement made on behalf of the business.
HR / Sales / Marketing Manager	Owns this SOP. Trains staff, handles grievances and conflict, supports anyone who raises a concern, approves brand and marketing messages before CEO sign-off.
Supervisor	Models good communication on shift. Runs the daily huddle, handles first-level conflict and guest complaints, and records concerns the same day.
Documentation & Compliance Coordinator	Keeps the Decision and Commitment Log, minutes, concern reports and templates. Checks compliance each quarter. Sits on the Inquiry Committee.
IT Manager	Sets up official email and messaging accounts, controls access, advises on data leaks and wrong-recipient emails.
Security & Safety Manager	Handles threats, abuse or stalking by guests or outsiders. Supports the Inquiry Committee where needed.

Operations Officer	Makes sure meetings, handovers and vendor communication are scheduled and recorded.
All employees	Follow this SOP, speak and write with respect, protect confidential information, record promises, and report concerns.

3. Communication Channels

Use the right channel for the message. Decisions and official matters must always end up in writing (Section 14).

Channel	Use for	Do not use for	Reply time (on shift)
Official email	Formal requests, approvals, vendor and partner messages, documents, summaries of decisions	Urgent safety matters	Internal: 1 working day. External: 1 working day. Guest enquiry: 4 working hours.
Phone call	Urgent, complex or sensitive matters, guest calls	Decisions with no written follow-up	Answer within 3 rings. Return a missed call within 2 hours.
Staff WhatsApp group	Shift cover, daily updates, quick coordination	Decisions, HR matters, complaints, guest data, performance feedback	Within 2 hours. Mark urgent messages "URGENT".
Business WhatsApp and social media messages	Guest enquiries, bookings, event information	Personal chat, private staff matters	Within 1 hour in opening hours (MEZ-PLN-002).
Face to face	Feedback, coaching, conflict, sensitive topics	Complex data or figures (send in writing too)	Meeting held within 2 working days of the request.
Meetings	Planning, problem solving, decisions	Information that email can cover	As scheduled.
Notice board	Rosters, policies, emergency contacts	Personal or confidential information	Updated when changes occur.

3.1 Outside shift hours

- Staff are not expected to answer work messages when off shift, except in an emergency.
- Do not send non-urgent messages between 10:00 PM and 8:00 AM. If you write late, schedule the message or send it in the morning.
- An emergency means danger to people, property or the premises. Call the person. Do not only send a message.

4. Official Email Etiquette

- Use the official company email account for all work. Do not use personal email for company business.
- Subject line: write a clear subject that says what you need, for example "Approval needed: July workshop poster by Friday".
- Start and end well: greet by name ("Dear Ms. Sana" or "Assalam-o-Alaikum Sana"), state your point in the first two lines, say what you need and by when, then close politely ("Regards" or "Jazakallah and regards").
- Keep it short: one topic per email. Use short sentences and bullet points. Do not write in capital letters, which reads as shouting.

- To, CC and BCC: put the person who must act in "To". Use CC only for people who need to know. Use BCC when sending to guests or members so their addresses stay private. Use Reply All only when everyone needs the answer.
- Attachments: name files clearly (Document ID, title, version). Check the right file is attached. Do not send confidential files to personal addresses.
- Check before you send: the right person, the right file, the right facts and prices, spelling of names, and a polite tone.
- Wrong recipient: if an email goes to the wrong person, tell the IT Manager and your Supervisor at once, and ask the receiver to delete it.
- Signature and out-of-office: use the standard signature (Annex A). When away for more than one working day, set an out-of-office reply with the date of return and a contact person.
- Tone in writing: do not send an email when angry. Wait, re-read it, and ask yourself whether you would say the same words face to face.

5. Telephone Etiquette

5.1 Answering and making calls

- Answer within 3 rings. Smile as you speak. Use the standard greeting: "Assalam-o-Alaikum, Mehfil-e-Zan, (your name) speaking. How may I help you?"
- Speak clearly and calmly. Let the caller finish. Repeat names, dates and numbers back to confirm them.
- When you call someone, say who you are and why you are calling. Ask whether it is a good time.
- Ask before putting a caller on hold and thank them for waiting. Do not leave a caller on hold for more than 2 minutes without checking back.
- When transferring a call, say who you are transferring to and why, so the caller does not repeat the story.

5.2 Taking messages and missed calls

Write down the caller's name, number, reason, date and time, and who took the message. Pass it on the same shift. Return missed calls within 2 hours on shift. If the caller does not answer, send a short message.

5.3 Difficult calls

- Stay calm and polite. Let the caller explain, then say what you can do.
- If a caller is abusive, say once: "I want to help, but I cannot continue if the language does not change." If it continues, end the call politely and tell the Supervisor. Record it as a concern (Section 13).
- Do not argue and do not make promises you cannot keep.

5.4 Other phone rules

- Keep personal calls short and away from guests. Phones are on silent during service, meetings and workshops.
- Calls are not recorded unless the caller is told first and the CEO has approved it.
- Do not give out staff or guest phone numbers to anyone without permission.

6. Meeting Etiquette

6.1 Types of meetings

Meeting	Length	Who chairs	Record
Daily huddle (before opening)	5 minutes	Supervisor	Key points in the Daily Operations Report
Weekly team meeting	30 minutes	HR / Sales / Marketing Manager	Minutes (Annex B)
Monthly review	60 minutes	CEO	Minutes and Decision Log
One-to-one	30 minutes	Manager or Supervisor	Short note kept in the staff file
Event or workshop planning	As needed	Operations Officer	Minutes and action list

6.2 Before the meeting

- Send the agenda, time and place at least 24 hours before, except for the daily huddle.
- Invite only people who need to be there. Avoid prayer times, and be considerate during Ramadan.
- Share papers in advance so people can read them.

6.3 During the meeting

- Start and end on time. If you will be more than 5 minutes late, tell the chair.
- Keep phones on silent. Give your full attention. One person speaks at a time.
- Listen to understand. Disagree with the idea, not the person. Everyone gets a chance to speak, including the quietest person.
- The chair summarises each decision and each action, with an owner and a date.
- Online meetings: join from a quiet place, mute when not speaking and use video where possible. Do not record the meeting unless everyone agrees first.

6.4 After the meeting

- The note-taker sends minutes within 24 hours (Annex B).
- Decisions and commitments go into the Decision and Commitment Log (Section 14). Action owners confirm by reply.

7. Messaging Etiquette (WhatsApp and Chat Groups)

- Work groups are for work. Each group has a clear purpose, an admin and a list of members. The admin removes people who have left the business.
- Write in short, clear messages. Tag the person who must act. Use "URGENT" only for urgent matters.
- Be polite and respectful. Avoid sarcasm, sticker spam and jokes that could hurt anyone. No jokes about guests, colleagues, appearance, family, religion, language or background.
- Do not argue in group chats. Take disagreements to a private, calm conversation or to your Supervisor.

- Do not post guest names, phone numbers, photos or CCTV in any chat group. Do not forward private messages without the sender's permission.
- Use text for important information. Voice notes should be short (under 1 minute) and not used for decisions.
- Staff do not message guests from personal numbers. Use the business WhatsApp number.
- Decisions made in chat must be confirmed in writing by email or in the Decision Log.
- Do not delete messages that may be needed as evidence of a concern. Keep them and report (Section 13).
- When a shift ends, stop work chat unless it is an emergency. Mute groups off shift.

8. Language, Tone and Response Time

8.1 Language

- Use Urdu or English, whichever the other person prefers. Match the guest's language.
- Use respectful forms: "aap", "ji", "please" and "thank you". Use names and titles that people prefer.
- Roman Urdu is fine in quick internal chat. Use clear English or Urdu in emails, notices and official documents.
- Do not use abusive words, slang that insults, or language that mocks accents, bodies, families or backgrounds.
- Keep religion, politics, sect, caste and ethnicity out of work conversations and work channels.

8.2 Professional tone

Be warm, calm, clear, honest and brief. A good tone is friendly without being careless, and firm without being rude.

Instead of	Say
"That is not my job."	"Let me find the right person for you."
"You did it wrong."	"Let us look at how we can fix this together."
"We do not allow that."	"I am sorry, we cannot do that here. What I can do is..."
"I told you already!"	"Let me explain it again, in case I was not clear."
"No idea."	"I do not know yet. I will find out and reply by (time)."

8.3 Response-time expectations

Priority	Examples	Response	Resolution
Urgent	Danger, injury, threat, fire, major cash or data loss	Immediately, by phone	Follow MEZ-SOP-002
High	Guest complaint, booking problem, payment issue, manager request	Within 4 working hours	Within 1 working day
Normal	Routine internal requests, vendor questions	Within 1 working day	Within 3 working days
Low	Ideas, general information	Within 3 working days	As agreed

- If you cannot give a full answer in time, reply that you have received the message and say when you will answer.
- Guest complaints are acknowledged within 4 hours and answered within 3 working days. HR grievances are acknowledged within 2 working days.

9. Brand Voice, Corporate Documentation and Launch Communication

Mehfil-e-Zan is launching and building its brand portfolio at the same time. Every message, document and post must look and sound like one business.

9.1 Brand voice

- Warm, elegant, calm and friendly, with a Pakistani feel. Premium but welcoming. Not corporate and not childish.
- Short sentences and clear words. Occasional Urdu words such as mehfil, chai and baithak are welcome.
- Say only what is true. Do not claim awards, ratings or years in business that do not exist. Prices, hours and offers must match the official list.
- The tagline is "Gather. Grow. Glow." and the business name is written "Mehfil-e-Zan" (Urdu: محفلِ زن).

9.2 Brand portfolio standards

Item	Standard
Logo	A circle with a teacup and petal-shaped steam. Use only the approved files. Do not stretch, recolour or edit.
Colours	Sage green #9CAF88, terracotta #C66B4E, cream #F7F0E3 and dark brown #3E2C23.
Fonts	Cormorant Garamond for headings, Lato for body text and Noto Nastaliq Urdu for the Urdu name. Office documents use the standard company Word template.
Templates	Email signature, letterhead, SOP template, menu, poster and social post templates are held by the Documentation & Compliance Coordinator. Use only these.
Master files	The latest approved version of each file is stored in one shared folder with access control. Old versions are kept in an archive folder.

9.3 Official documents

- Every official document has a Document ID, title, version number, effective date, owner, approver and status (Draft or Approved).
- Only the document owner edits the master. Changes are recorded in the revision history and approved by the CEO.
- File names follow this pattern: ID_Title_vX.X (for example MEZ-SOP-007_Communication_Ethics_v1.0).
- Staff use the approved version only. Printed copies are marked "uncontrolled" and are replaced when a new version is approved.

9.4 Launch and public communication

Message type	Prepared by	Checked by	Approved by
Launch announcement, press note, social posts	Marketing Executive	HR / Sales / Marketing Manager	CEO
Menu, prices, offers and membership terms	Marketing Executive	Finance Director	CEO
Partner and sponsor messages	Sales Executive	HR / Sales / Marketing Manager	CEO
Replies to online reviews	Marketing Executive	HR / Sales / Marketing Manager	Within 2 working days
Statements to media or authorities	CEO	Owner	Owner

- Before publishing, check names, prices, hours, address and contact numbers. Photos of guests and staff need consent (MEZ-SOP-002).
- Only the CEO or a person named by the CEO speaks for the business in public. Staff may share official posts, but do not post about work problems, guests or colleagues on personal accounts.
- Reply to bad reviews politely and briefly, offer to talk offline, and never argue in public.

10. Confidentiality

10.1 What is confidential

Guest and member details and photos, CRM records, staff files and pay, finance figures, CCTV footage, security arrangements, complaints and investigation details, contracts, and plans or prices that are not yet public (including launch plans).

10.2 Rules

- Share only with people who need the information to do their job.
- Do not discuss guests, members or colleagues in public places, in guest areas or on social media.
- Lock screens, put papers away and do not leave phones or laptops open with private data. Follow the clean-desk rule (MEZ-SOP-002).
- Do not copy confidential files to personal phones, personal email or personal cloud accounts.
- Staff, interns and vendors who see confidential information sign a confidentiality agreement (assumed).

- The duty continues after a person leaves the business.

10.3 Breaches and exceptions

- Report any leak or wrong-recipient message the same day to the IT Manager and HR / Sales / Marketing Manager.
- Information may be shared with the police, courts or authorities only when the law requires it and the CEO has approved.
- Reporting wrongdoing through Section 13 is not a breach of confidentiality.

11. Respectful Communication and Anti-Harassment Standards

11.1 Standard

Mehfil-e-Zan has zero tolerance for harassment, bullying and discrimination. Everyone is treated with dignity. This applies to staff, guests, vendors and visitors, in person and online, at work and at work events.

11.2 Examples of unacceptable communication

Type	Examples
Sexual or gender-based	Comments about someone's body, unwelcome messages or photos, jokes with sexual meaning, unwelcome attention, stalking, gender-based insults.
Bullying and intimidation	Shouting, threats, public humiliation, ignoring someone on purpose, spreading rumours, giving impossible tasks to make someone fail.
Discrimination	Mocking someone for language, accent, ethnicity, sect, religion, class, age, disability, appearance, marital status, or being a mother or homemaker.
Online conduct	Rude messages in groups, sharing screenshots to shame someone, memes about colleagues or guests, messages late at night to pressure someone.
By guests and vendors	Abusive language, unwanted comments, repeated unwanted contact, taking photos without consent.

11.3 Everyday standards

- If someone says "stop" or looks uncomfortable, stop at once. Jokes are not an excuse.
- Give feedback privately, kindly and about the work, not the person.
- Ask permission before taking or sharing any photo or video.
- Nobody is punished for speaking up in good faith. Retaliation against someone who reports a concern is itself serious misconduct.

11.4 Legal compliance

Pakistan has a law on harassment at work, the Protection Against Harassment of Women at the Workplace Act, 2010, which was amended in 2022. It asks every organisation to display a Code of Conduct, appoint a Competent Authority and form a three-member Inquiry Committee with at least one woman. Mehfil-e-Zan plans to do this as follows (assumed, to be confirmed with a legal adviser):

- Competent Authority: the CEO. If the complaint is about the CEO, the Owner.

- Inquiry Committee: Documentation & Compliance Coordinator (chair), Security & Safety Manager and one senior team member chosen by the CEO. A member steps aside if the complaint involves her.
- The Code of Conduct and the names of the Competent Authority and committee are displayed on the staff notice board and given to every new employee.

12. Conflict Resolution and Escalation

12.1 Principles

Disagreement is normal. Handle it early, privately and respectfully. Focus on the problem, listen to both sides and look for a fair outcome. Do not gossip or take sides in group chats.

12.2 Escalation levels

Level	Step	Time frame
1	Talk directly and politely. Describe what happened, how it affected you and what you need.	Within 2 working days
2	Ask the Supervisor to help. The Supervisor listens to both sides and helps agree a solution.	Within 3 working days
3	Take it to the HR / Sales / Marketing Manager in writing. A meeting with both people is held and a written outcome is given.	Within 5 working days
4	Escalate to the CEO for a final decision. Matters involving the CEO go to the Owner.	Within 7 working days

Harassment, threats, discrimination and safety issues skip Levels 1 and 2 and go straight to Section 13. Nobody has to confront a person who has made them feel unsafe.

12.3 Mediation steps

- Meet in a private place. Agree ground rules: respect, no interrupting, no raised voices.
- Each person explains the facts and feelings without blame. The mediator repeats what she heard.
- Together, list options and agree actions with dates. Write them down and both sign.
- Check back after 2 weeks to see if the problem is solved.

12.4 Guest conflicts and complaints

- Use four steps: Listen without interrupting, Apologise for the experience, Solve within your authority, Thank the guest.
- Refer to the Supervisor if the guest stays upset or asks for more than you can offer (Section 14.3).
- If a guest is aggressive or harassing, follow the Security Measures SOP (MEZ-SOP-002).

13. Reporting Inappropriate Communication

13.1 What to report

Harassment, bullying, discrimination, threats, abusive or sexual messages, leaking of confidential information, misuse of messaging groups or social media, rumours and cyberbullying, and any communication that makes you or another person feel unsafe or disrespected.

13.2 How to report

- Tell your Supervisor, the HR / Sales / Marketing Manager, any member of the Inquiry Committee or the CEO. If your Supervisor is involved, go to someone else.
- Use the Communication Concern Report (Annex D) or write an email or message. A verbal report is accepted, and the person who receives it writes it down.
- You can ask for support or for the report to be kept confidential. A report may also be left in the sealed suggestion box without a name.
- Keep screenshots, messages and dates. Do not delete them.

13.3 What happens next

Step	Action	Time
Acknowledge	The receiver confirms the report in writing and logs it.	Within 2 working days
Assess	HR / Sales / Marketing Manager (or CEO if she is involved) judges the severity and decides on temporary protection, such as separating seating or shifts.	Within 3 working days
Investigate	Fair and confidential. Statements from everyone involved, separately. Evidence kept safe. Harassment complaints go to the Inquiry Committee.	Within 10 working days for ordinary matters
Decide	Written outcome and actions approved by the CEO.	Within 3 working days of investigation
Follow up	Check with the person who reported after 2 weeks and again after 2 months.	Scheduled

Note: Harassment complaints under the law have their own procedure and deadlines. The Inquiry Committee follows the law and not the time frames above.

13.4 Possible outcomes

Informal resolution and apology, coaching, verbal warning, written warning, final warning, or termination under the disciplinary process in MEZ-SOP-001. For guests, a warning or a ban decided by the CEO. For vendors, a formal complaint or end of contract. Serious cases are reported to the police or authorities.

13.5 Protection and fairness

- Reports are kept confidential and shared only with those who need to know.
- No retaliation against anyone who reports or helps an inquiry in good faith. Retaliation leads to disciplinary action.
- A person accused is treated fairly, told what the concern is, and given a chance to respond. Making a report in bad faith, knowing it is false, may lead to disciplinary action.

- Anyone affected is offered support, time off if needed and help to contact the police or a counsellor.

14. Documentation of Decisions and Commitments

14.1 What to document

Any decision that affects money, prices, schedules, staff, guests, suppliers, safety or policy, and any promise made to a guest, member, vendor or colleague (for example a booking date, a refund, a discount, a deadline).

14.2 Rules

- Record the decision or promise within 24 hours in the Decision and Commitment Log (Annex C). Include date, topic, decision, owner, deadline, approver and status.
- Confirm verbal promises in writing by email or message so both sides have the same understanding.
- Meeting minutes are sent within 24 hours. People who disagree with the minutes say so within 2 working days.
- The Documentation & Compliance Coordinator reviews open actions each week and reports overdue ones to the HR / Sales / Marketing Manager.
- If a new written decision replaces an earlier one, the log notes this. The latest approved written decision is the one to follow.
- Logs, minutes and concern reports are kept for 3 years (assumed) under the Master Document Register. Concern reports are stored with restricted access.

14.3 Authority to make commitments

Do not promise more than your role allows. Refer to the next level if a request goes beyond your limit. The limits below are assumed and are set by the CEO and Finance Director.

Role	May commit to
All staff	Apologise, replace an item, give accurate information and take a booking request.
Supervisor	Complimentary items or a refund for a service problem up to Rs. 1,500 per guest.
HR / Sales / Marketing Manager	Event quotes, discounts within the approved price list, partner meetings, staff schedule changes.
Finance Director	Refunds above the Supervisor limit, payment terms, vendor payments.
CEO and Owner	Price changes, new partnerships, contracts, policy changes and public statements.

15. Compliance, Review and Approval

15.1 Training and acknowledgement

- Every new employee gets this SOP and a short briefing in the first week, and signs an acknowledgement form.

- All staff attend a refresher each year. Staff in guest-facing roles also practise phone and complaint scripts.
